PUTS POLICE IN UPROAR ON 'FAKE'

Mrs. Frazee of Marion Successfully Evades Her Imaginary Foe,
Joe Lyden.

WAS ONCE HER SON-IN-LAW

Believed That he Would Kidnap His Own Daughter From Her—
Calls Police Force.

Fearing that Joe Lyden, a former cigarmaker here, who is back on a visit, would kidnap his ten-year-old daughter, Mrs. Frazee of Marion, grandmother of the girl and in whose custody she was placed by the court after Mrs. Lyden received a divorce from her husband, kept the police force in a furore all day. Mrs. Frazee has been visiting Mrs. James J. Osborne in West First street and just as soon as she saw Lyden back in the city she at once believed that he was here to kidnap his daughter. Lyden says that that was farthest from his thoughts and that he never had any such intentions. He says that he is back here on a visit with his parents and that he did not know that his former mother-in-law and his daughter were here.

The trouble began this morning when Lyden by merest chance met Mrs. Frazee and his daughter at the I. & C. traction station about nine o'clock. She had planned to go to Indianapolis with the little girl and had bought a ticket to go on the dispatch. Lyden says that he started down to visit his daughter, when he unexpectedly met her at the traction station. He says that he immediately went up to her and intended to fondle her as any father would. But instead of allowing that, Mrs. Frazee immediately had visions of her little granddaughter being kidnapped and telephoned for the police. The officers could not be found and all was quiet for a time. Mrs. Frazee did not go to Indianapolis and Lyden settled the disturbance. He went out to the Osborne home and said that there was no bitter feelings when he left there at noon.

Shortly after dinner City Marshal Harlow received a telephone message from the Hackleman farm about one mile west of the city, that he was wanted there at once. The woman at the other end of the line said to bring the whole police force immediately that something awful was taking place. The officer thought that murder was being committed and rushed to the scene as fast as an automobile would carry him. But he found no murder there.

Instead, he found five women near the Hackleman farm, at stop 29 on the I. & C. traction line, wringing their hands and crying as if something terrible had just happened. It developed that Mrs. Frazee was a member of the party and that a delegation had come out to the stop to see her off. It seems that Mrs. Fra-

TO BEGIN MEETING SUNDAY

zee feared that Lyden would attempt to take his own daughter, her granddaughter, by force and she went out to the country stop to avoid him. In the meantime Lyden was in the city with no intentions of attempting to take his daughter, and was calmly making a cigar for himself at the Demmer Bros. factory.

Mrs. Frazee was successfully evading her imaginary foe and has arrived in Indianapolis safely and once more the police force is back to the regular routine. Lyden is still here and intends to remain several days as he came here for a visit with his parents. He lived here at one time with his wife and was at that time employed at the Demmer Bros. cigar factory. His former employers have nothing but words of praise for him. Mrs. Lyden was granted a divorce from her husband at Marion about three years ago, he not even contesting the case.

LOCAL HORSES ARE ENTERED IN RACES

Many Rushville Horsemen Will be Seen at Henry County Fair
August 9 to 13.

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND

Rush county horses and drivers will take a prominent part in the races at the Henry county fair, which will be held at New Castle August 9 to 13. A number of local people attend the annual exhibit of the adjoining county and the people up there generally reciprocate by coming to the local fair. The secretary of the fair board there says that their prospects for a fair were never better and they are expecting to make history for county fairs in this section of the State. The Rushville train leaves here for New Castle at ten o'clock in the morning or those who desire to go earlier may leave here about six o'clock in the morning over the I. & C. traction line for Connersville and get a train at seven o'clock.

WORK ON STREETS NOW IN FULL SWING

Harness For Teams Arrives and the Tearing up of North Main Begins in Earnest.

WERE DELAYED SEVERAL DAYS

After a delay of several days, the work on the tearing up of North Main street in preparation for paving with brick was resumed this morning and is now in full swing. The stopping of the work after it had once been started was caused by the failure of a car of material, belonging to the contractors to arrive. The car contained harness for the teams and they were unable to fit the horses out to work until the car arrived. They received word that it was held up in Hamilton a few days ago and that the time for it being sent was indefinite. It came yesterday evening and was promptly unloaded. The contractors expect to rush the work faster than ever due to the fact that they have lost several days.

HUNTS FOR WIFE THE SECOND TIME

Mrs. Charles Elliott Returns to Husband Only to Leave Again in Short Time.

WERE PEACEFUL AT ALPINE

Started Out to Bring Ed Banks, With Whom She Went First Time, to Justice.

The police are still hearing echoes from Charles Elliott, whose wife ran away with his nephew, Ed Banks, on Saturday, June 25. The police had word from Elliott the other day saying that he would arrive here yesterday, but he failed to put in his appearance. According to the information received by the police, Elliott had his fleeing wife within his grasp once and then allowed her to escape him. Elliott is searching for her again and says that he will not allow her to get away again if he is successful in his next attempt.

It will be remembered that Elliott's wife ran away with Ed Banks on the afternoon of June 28, leaving her two children behind and saying that she would have nothing more to do with her husband. Banks is a nephew of Elliott, and had been living at the Elliott home. He became suspicious of his relative, that he was too intimate with his wife, but he did not believe that they would run away together. He intercepted them, while they were on the way to the station and was so dumbfounded when his wife told him that she was leaving him for another man, he could not act. He reported the matter to the police and an effort was made to catch Mrs. Elliott and her lover.

It has since developed that Mrs. Elliott grew tired of her husband's relative and would return to Elliott. He told her that if she would come to Alpine, Payette county, they would live peacefully there without further trouble. From all the information the police have, it seems that Mrs. Elliott returned to her husband and all was peaceful for a time. She said that she would assist her husband in catching Banks, who had nearly destroyed their home.

Mrs. Elliott was very anxious that Banks be brought to justice, so anxious in fact that she went to Indianapolis to see if she could locate him. That is the last that Elliott has seen of his wife and once more he is looking for her. She failed to return home, according to her promise, when she started out on the hunt of Banks, against whom she bore a deep hatred. At least she told her husband that, but he is loath to believe it now. He will continue to hunt for her.

MAY FILE CHARGE AGAINST CROSBY

Governor Recommends Investigation
by Attorney General of Two Specific Charges in Report.

MUST BE MADE BY AUGUST 28

Former Trustee Has Been Kept in Total Ignorance of Whole Proceedings at All Times.

From all that can be gleaned from a story in the Indianapolis Star this morning, steps will be taken to prosecute Ed Crosby, former trustee of Rushville township, for alleged criminal acts during his tenure of office. The prosecution is recommended by Governor Marshall in a letter to the attorney general of the State. The letter brings out the specific charges that two payments, one to Jarvis & Jackson and another to Thomas Hughes, are of criminal nature, the nature of the crime, however, not being stated.

Mr. Crosby, when seen this morning, said that he was in total ignorance of the whole proceedings. He said that he had never been consulted at any time during the examination of his reports here and that he knew nothing of the charges, which are said to be of a criminal nature. The only possible manner in which they could be criminal is the fact that it is said to be a violation of the law for a trustee to purchase goods for the township from a firm, where he is financially interested.

After reviewing the cases of several other trustees, who have paid money, the amount of which they were charged with shortage, the Indianapolis Star says concerning the Crosby case:

In Governor Marshall's letter to Attorney General Bingham, the charges against Edward Crosby, former trustee of Rushville township, Rush county, are discussed at length. The Governor thinks it probable that the prosecuting attorney, who is a brother-in-law of Crosby, may hesitate to prosecute the criminal charges preferred by the State examiners. The Governor's letter reads:

I am also instructed to notify you that in the report of Edward Crosby, trustee of Rushville township, Rush county, there is a charge on page 9 thereof of two payments, one of $142.20 to Jarvis & Jackson, and one of $110 to Thomas Hughes of the date of August 29, 1908, which said charges are reported to be criminal in their character. It is also reported that the prosecuting attorney of Rush county is the brother-in-law of Crosby and may feel some delicacy about prosecuting this suit. Please examine the report and the accompanying evidence at once and if convinced that these charges are criminal consult with the prosecuting attorney of Rush county and at his request relieve him of the responsibility of prosecuting this charge and prosecute the same yourself.

It will be observed that if this charge is criminal the statute of limitations would run against it August 28. It will be necessary, therefore to take up this matter at once.

BOYS WILL BE PUNISHED

Investigation of Rotten Egging of Sunday Will be Made.

According to the police, something more will come of the incident of Sunday, when four boys threw rotten eggs at an automobile party from Knightstown near the old Hiner barn in East Second street. An investigation will be made and it is probable that the four boys, whose names the police have, will be brought to justice.

PAYS A FINE FOR BEATING RELATIVE

Emmitt Plue, East of Clarksburg, Whips His Father-in-Law, John Lewis, 82 Years Old.

HE PLEADS GUILTY IN COURT

A belated story of the manner in which Emmitt Plue whipped his father-in-law, John S. Lewis, eighty-two years old, Saturday night at his home east of Clarksburg, reached this city last night. Plue is said to have severely beaten his aged relative and then struck his wife when she interfered and attempted to stop the trouble. The sheriff of Decatur county was notified and soon arrived on the scene in an automobile. He did not arrest Plue after extracting a promise from him that he would go to Greensburg Monday morning and pay a fine. He paid a fine of two dollars and costs in the Greensburg mayor's court yesterday.

According to the other members of the Plue family, Lewis provoked his son-in-law and brought on the trouble which ended so disastrously for him. According to neighbors in the vicinity of the Plue home, the trouble was caused over an argument over some hay on the Lewis farm, which is being tended by Plue.

FLYING SQUADRON TO BEGIN TONIGHT

First of Tours Over County Advertising Chautauqua Will be Made in Automobile.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB WILL SING

If dreams come true, the "Flying Squadron" will leave the court house square at six o'clock this evening to make a trip over the county, advertising the annual chautauqua which begins next Sunday. It was planned to start the tours last night but not enough automobiles could be obtained. The same plan will be followed as was used last year. The machines will carry the girls' glee club who will give concerts at all of the stops. A speaker will explain the mission of the squadron and advertising matter will be distributed all over the small towns. The "Flying Squadron" was given its birth one year ago and was first used in advertising the chautauqua. It is considered a very novel and unique plan and has been used by other organizations here as well as in other cities.

FINGERS ARE CUT.

OPENING DAY IS NOT FAR AWAY

Culmination of Detail Work, Arranging For Chautauqua Will Come to Close Sunday.

FIRST PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN

The Fisher-Shipp Concert Co. Recognized as One of Best on Lyceum Stage Today.

The program for the annual chautauqua which will be held for eight days, beginning next Sunday, in the city park, offers numerous, profitable and instructive entertainments and lectures. Practically every resident of the city and county is acquainted with the attractions this year and it is only a question as to whether or not they will be able to attend all of the afternoon and evening sessions. The program is well balanced and offers a good selection of musical entertainments as well as instructive, interesting and humorous lectures.

The booklet, containing the program in detail and the list of talent with a notice below, giving their merits was issued today and will be distributed. They will be taken on the "Flying Squadron" tonight and given out at all of the small towns. The booklet is said to be the neatest and most attractive one yet issued by the chautauqua and will probably attract many people, who would not otherwise attend the annual assembly. It is enclosed in a dark gray cover and is printed on the back with a dark red and black ink. The ticket sale is progressing as fast as could be expected.

The guarantors say that they have had numerous calls for the season tickets and in some instances business men have sold the whole block which they purchased. Patrons of the chautauqua are urged to buy their tickets as soon as possible so that the committee may determine how great the sale will be. Tickets may be had now for $1.50 but on the opening day of the chautauqua they will raise to two dollars.

The musical companies to be seen and heard at this year's assembly are said to excel that part of the program of previous years. The Fisher-Shipp concert company, which will be here Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday is recognized as a high class musical organization. The Entertainment Review, published at Chicago, which deals exclusively with entertainers on the Lyceum stage, has this to say of the company:

Fisher Shipp must have been born in May. No other natal month could account for so many moods and delightful surprises. There is more than a hint of May in her voice, for it is full of sunshine and life, suggestive of spring. Fisher Shipp can sing. Two years with a great artist would make her a grand opera star. She has a voice of golden smoothness, lyric in quality and of remarkable range, (of almost four octaves) sometimes thoroughly dramatic. That one so dainty and thoroughly feminine in appearance should possess a voice of such compass and power is a constant surprise and delight.

Fisher Shipp has other surprises in store for her hearers, however. The applause hardly dies away in response to her song when she makes her bow as the reader of the company—vivacious, charming—she enters into her work with all her soul and sweeps us all along with her through laughter and tears, to the end of her story, and we know that she is a great reader, a great singer and a great entertainer.

Miss Shipp is a thorough master

Measures Passed by Republican Congress Justified Taft Faith and Patience.

"As was I kept the friendship and co-operation of the conservative Republicans in Congress—the one section where opposition might have been expected to develop—for my general program of legislation; and, at the same time, I secured, in the tariff bill itself, the means of bringing about what I stand for, and what I believe this country wants—a fair protective tariff, based not on guesswork but on actual evidence."

For this, druggists everywhere are supplying a prescription known as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. First these tiny inside Stomach, Heart, and Kidney nerves fail. Then gas belching, Heart palpitation, or failing Kidneys follow. Don't drug the Stomach, or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. ### Hot Weather Affects The Skin.

Tender skins are bound to be affected by the increased amount of poison in the copious perspiration thrown off during hot weather. Rash, hives, blotches, pimples, prickly heat result. Often too, serious skin troubles begin this way.

To wash away the poison entirely, to clean and cool the skin, make an application of a simple solution of wintergreen with thymol, known as D. D. D. Prescription for eczema. It is sold for the purpose in dollar bottles, but we can give you for 25 cents enough D. D. D. to keep your skin fresh and clean from summer blemishes. If there is any itch this wintergreen lotion will take it away instantly, the very second it is applied to the skin. We assure you of this for we have seen the result with D. D. D. at Lytle's Drug Store.

Don't Spoil Your Clothes.

Use Red Cross Ball Blue and keep them white as snow. All grovers, 5 cents a package.

Eight Months on $5.

Any person who cannot get their strength back in four months which constitute a $5 treatment of Sexine Pills is entitled to the free treatment of four months more. Sexine Pills are absolutely guaranteed for all forms of nerve weakness in men or women. Address or call Hargrove & Mullin, druggists where they sell all the principal remedies and do not substitute.

Acute or Chronic — Which?

No matter if your kidney trouble is acute or chronic Foley's Kidney Remedy will reach your case. Mr. Claude Brown, Reynoldsville, Ill., writes us that he suffered many months with kidney complaint which baffled all treatment. At last he tried Foley's Kidney Remedy and a few large bottles effected a complete cure. He says, "It has been of inestimable value to me."

To keep your health sound; to avoid the ills of advancing years; to conserve your physical forces for a ripe and healthful old age, guard your kidneys by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. F. B. Johnson & Co.

ROY HARROLD, City Editor.

Tuesday, August 2, 1910.

Those who patronize the mail order houses in preference to their home merchant should go and look at the so-called business streets of the suburban town near the large cities. They are disappointing. There are no well-stocked stores, such as are seen in every live country town, only small shops with meager stocks and no look of prosperity. The reason for all this is not far to seek. The residents of these places go to the nearby city to buy whether they wish to or not. These people have destroyed their home town to build up the city merchant.

Many of the country people are unwittingly taking a course calculated to produce the same result in our prosperous country towns and make them into dead and undesirable places. Every dollar sent away to a mail order house is a step in that direction. Every dollar sent out of your community in that way helps to build up the city and keep back your own town. Every order sent to a mail order house helps to keep your home merchant from making an honest living.

Jealousies in a town always retard or prevent its development and its growth. There is no surer specific for securing permanent insignificance to a town or village than to sow it thickly with local jealousies and set its business men to pulling each other's ears and hair. Where the business men, professional men, mechanics and local capitalists are so jealous of each other that they will not unite upon any proposition for the general welfare, they are, practically speaking, dead men, living in a dead town, that their own bitter tongues and cross-grained policies have killed. If there chances to be a saner and sweeter remnant of citizenship left in such a place it might as well give up hope and adopt the refrain of a certain quaint old hymn and sing: "O, to be Nothing," or better, get out and find a town whose people pull together for the general prosperity and begin life over again in its more inspiring atmosphere.

The hinges of hope's golden door turn not to the mean, narrowing appeals of jealousy or stingy selfishness. But there is wonderful strength in cheerful, sympathetic and wholesome union in behalf of any good purpose, whether it be mental or spiritual.—Benjamin F. Parker in New Castle Courier.

Take a Vacation.

It is said none really knows his own country until he views it from abroad. No man gets the true perspective of his life until he gets away from his usual routine, and gets a new, fresh viewpoint from outside, says Orison Sweet Marden in "Success" Magazine.

No great artist will attempt to work constantly on his masterpiece until it is finished. He works while his faculties are sharp, fresh and gripping; but the moment his ideal begins to dim or his energies to lag, he quits, because he knows that every bit of work he does while his thought is not fresh and vigorous will be inferior and will only injure his picture.

A great many men bury themselves so completely in their work, keep their noses so closely to the grindstone that they can not get the proper perspective of their situations. They work hard, but they work to a disadvantage because they do not see their business in its entirety. They do not mix with the people in their own line. They can not do the right thing because they are not in a position to get a broad view of their affairs.

Many men who spend too many hours a day in their offices get into the habit of wasting a great deal of time with callers—talking, doing all sorts of things, outside of business—whereas the man who spends only a few hours in his office is obliged to attend strictly to business from the moment he enters it until he leaves. Everybody knows that his time is precious and that people who call upon him must be brief. The result is that he makes his time count and often accomplishes more in a few hours than the man who spends eight or nine hours each day in his office. The modern method is to do the actual business with dispatch, make every minute count and then go and play with so much enthusiasm as one had previously put into work.

EDITORIALETTES.

It is very probable that Sunday automobile parties will give Rushville a wide berth when the report is once sent broadcast that they will be assaulted with rotten eggs on sight.

Some people who are not even connected with central think that they are live wires.

A revised version might read, "Don't try to do today what should be put off until tomorrow."

If you would know your family tree—run for office.

They say that laughter will cure indigestion. That is not the only thing it will cure.

Gossip is pernicious and to be abhorred, but they do say that on a recent moonlight night a Rushville young man threatened to run the automobile, in which he and a local young woman were riding, over a step embankment if she would not kiss him—threatened to run it right over and let everything go to smash. No, no, there have been no terrible automobile accidents in these parts of late.

These hot summer days, in case you have nothing to do, you might repeat in unison: "The sea ceaseth and it sufficeth us."

20 Days For $1.

Sexine Pills are sold at $1 a box, 6 boxes $5, with full guarantee for all forms of nerve weakness in men or women. There is 20 days' treatment in each box. When all other tonics fail Sexine Pills do the work. Address or call Hargrove & Mullin, druggists where they sell all the principal remedies and do not substitute.

Stagers Skeptics.

That a clean, nice, fragrant compound like Bucklin's Arnica Salve will instantly relieve a bad burn, cut, scald, wound or piles staggers skeptics. But great cures prove its a wonderful healer of the worst sores, ulcers, boils, felons, eczema, skin eruptions, as also chapped hands, sprains and corns. Try it. 25c. at F. B. Johnson & Co.

A Word of Thanks.

I wish to thank the Imperial Remedy Co., manufacturers of the Imperial Eczema Remedy, also Hargrove & Mullin, who are agents and recommended it to me, for what their remedy has done for me, as I am almost entirely cured.

I take this means, through the Republican, to offer my thanks that the good people may know of the benefit I have obtained and that other sufferers of eczema may learn of this wonderful remedy. 114eod16

From the Suburbs

The Hon. Victor Murdock says that Speaker Cannon has opposed progress for thirty years. But that is one of "Uncle Joe's" proudest boasts.—New York Tribune.

Kermit Roosevelt has sailed for Europe, carrying a number of guns with him. Evidently the Roosevelts overlooked something in Europe and he is going back to get it.—Buffalo Express.

Billionaire Rockefeller tells the youth of the country to forget wealth and go after nobler things. That's a straight tip—he has most of the former already fenced off.—Atlanta Georgian.

Good men will never forget or forgive the inhuman conduct of the Hon. Butler Ames in robbing Cabot Lodge of his vacation.—New York Sun.

Blaming the explosion of Fortress Monroe on the dead soldiers is one way of preventing a controversy.—Baltimore Sun.

When a girl admits that another girl is pretty, she usually adds that it's too bad that she has no style and that her skirt always hikes up in the front.—Ohio State Journal.

The silence of Senator Aldrich concerning the rubber schedule of the tariff promises to be one of the longest continued stories on record.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

President Taft has a sore foot, but it wasn't caused by kicking Ballinger out.—Baltimore Sun.

Most of the candidates haven't anything to show for it but a large number of old newspapers with their pictures in 'em.—Ohio State Journal.

A New York man was bitten by his pet rattlesnake the other day, but it is a little bit hard to work up any great amount of sympathy for a man who keeps a pet rattlesnake.—Ohio State Journal.

Insurgency, in a word, is based upon the theory that men and women are more important than money.—Kansas City Star.

A society man in Washington is to be paid $1,000 a year for inspecting saloons. Many men, both in and out of society, pay more than that to the saloons for the privilege.—New York World.

Washington's chief of police has detailed plain clothes men to mingle with the throng and catch mashers who throw lascivious stares and insulting remarks at the women who pass. There are some of the same kind of galoots in every community, and who need the attention of our plain clothes men.—Sioux City Tribune.

It is evident that Mayor Gaynor does not believe in the genuineness of a thirst that can only be appeased by staying up all night and visiting forty-seven different and distinct quencherics.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

James J. Hill declares that business is hampered by politics. It is believed that the Morgan-Guggenheim syndicate has felt that way for some time.—Springfield Union.

It would be just as well for young men to remember there are more prizes offered for agriculture than for aviation, and the game is safer.—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

A vote of thanks from the Democrats is due to the Ohio Republicans who will affront public opinion by indorsing the Payne-Aldrich law.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Chicago man says he has discovered that Wagnerian music played by a phonograph will cause a cat to stop howling. Very probably Shakespearean tragedy played by a popular-price stock company would make the undesirable cat repair to the lake and drown itself. Louisville Courier-Journal.

An Expert's Opinion of Skin Disease.

A prominent, national expert on skin diseases whose name you are familiar with says that in all his scientific experience he has never found so hard a disease to conquer as Eczema. Yet he does not hesitate to recommend ZEMO as a most successful remedy for the treatment of Eczema, itching skin disease, dandruff, pimples, blackheads and all other diseases of the skin and scalp. He says that not only do its curative qualities make it popular but also the fact that it is a clean, liquid remedy for external use. A great improvement over the old style greasy salves and lotions which are not only unpleasant to use but do not destroy the germ life that causes the disease. ZEMO draws the germs to the surface and destroys them, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Can be used freely on infants. Mr. F. E. Wolcott will gladly supply those who call with a free sample bottle of ZEMO and a booklet which explains in simple language all about skin disease and how to cure yourself at home with ZEMO.

STATE GOING TO GET AFTER THEM

Alleged Delinquent Township
Trustees In Trouble.

GOVERNOR ORDERS ACTION

Indiana's Attorney General Has Been Instructed to Proceed at Once
Against Present and Past Township Trustees Who Are Charged in Reports to the State Accounting Board With Being Short in Their Accounts.

Indianapolis, Aug. 2.—Governor Marshall has sent the names of thirty present and past township trustees to the attorney general, together with reports of the state accounting board showing that they are short in their accounts, and ordered the attorney general to proceed against them at once. Criminal prosecution will be inaugurated and civil suits will be filed against the trustees and their bondsmen to recover the money alleged to be due. The aggregate amount involved is nearly $100,000.

Reports in the cases of the following trustees were turned over to the attorney general:

Cass County—Edgar E. Phillips, Tipton township; W. J. Gibson, Jefferson township; J. M. Deniston, Adams township; Mark A. Brown, Boone township; W. W. Conner, Jackson township; A.
B. Irwin, Adams township; O. P. Erbaugh, Tipton township; Herman E.
Martin, Washington township.

Benton County—John Glynn and Fred F. Killin, both of Boliver township.

Vigo County—F. C. Fisbeck and William A. Thornton, both of Harrison township.

Jackson County—Philip I. Fetting,
Jackson township, and Jerry McOsker
and Oscar Allen, both of Brownstown township, and Henry M. Finch, Salt Creek township.

Scott County—C. T. Deal, Vienna
township, and O. K. Williams, Jennings township.

Sullivan County—C. S. Welch, P. M.
Hayworth and R. B. Douglass, all of Curry township.

Jasper County—Charles V. May, Carpenter township.

Allen County—D. N. Nail, Jefferson
township, and H. F. Berning, Madison
township.

Starke County—Leonard Rennwanz,
Railroad township.

Madison County—Frank Hardy, Anderson township.

Parke County—W. P. Brown, Raccoon township.

Dearborn County—J. W. Oberlin, Lawrenceburg township.

The list does not exhaust the cases in the hands of the state board of accounts, and others will be transmitted at an early date, it is understood.

Field examiners of the state board of accounts and fifty persons who will receive appointments as examiners under an examination recently held met with the state board at the statehouse today for a general inquiry into examinations under way and to prepare for the general examination of city and county affairs, soon to be started with approximately 100 examiners in the field. W. A. Dehority, chief examiner of the state board, presided over the meeting, which was held behind closed doors. Several of the examiners have been at work on county books, and they discussed general conditions as they found them.

VETERAN SHOOTS

Without Warning or Known Motive,
Old Man Opens Fire on Doctor.

Centerville, Ind., Aug. 2.—Dr. Harrison Gabel, of this place, one of the oldest and best known doctors in Wayne county, was shot and fatally wounded by George Dunlap, aged seventy, a civil war veteran. The doctor was walking along Main street when he met Dunlap, and the two had not exchanged a word when Dunlap drew a gun and fired two bullets into the doctor's body. No cause for the shooting is known.

Dunlap's mental condition is deemed irresponsible, and it is thought that he imagined wrongs which he attributed to Dr. Gabel caused him to attempt to kill him. Dunlap went with the officers to Richmond without trouble and was placed in the county jail. Later, in a rambling sort of a way, he said he had a grudge against Gabel and other citizens of Centerville, who had been interfering with his chances to realize from an estate. He also said that Gabel had reported around that he was in a serious physical condition
from heart disease.

Youth Stricken by Lightning.
Logansport, Ind., Aug. 2.—Fred Green, aged eighteen, son of Charles R. Green, a Panhandle train dispatcher, living in this city, was struck and instantly killed by lightning near Gardner, Mont., at the entrance to Yellowstone National park, Sunday. He was a graduate of the Logansport high school, studied at a preparatory school last year, and was to have entered Princeton this fall. The body will be brought here for burial.

Wife Ill; Man Shoots Self.
Rockford, Ill., Aug. 2.—Despondent
over the sickness of his wife, William Kruger shot himself, inflicting a probably fatal wound.

CANADA TO TAKE THE SHORT CUT

Crippen Will Be Deported As Undesirable

HE WILL NOT RESIST ACTION

As the Quickest Way Out the Canadian Authorities, Not Waiting for Operation of Extradition Machinery, Will Probably Send Alleged Wife Murderer Back to England Under Clause of Immigration Act as an Undesirable.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 2.—While the immigration department has not been alluded in connection with the case, it is assumed here that Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, arrested on board the steamer Montrose charged with the murder of his wife in London, and Miss Leneve, will be sent back to England by process of deportation. An officer of the department has gone to Quebec in connection with the case. The acting commissioner of immigration stated that as a suspected criminal and consequently an undesirable, Crippen can be deported or he may be sent back because, being an American, he is not coming from the country of his birth.
As to Miss Leneve, if she is Crippen's wife, she can be deported because of being with him and sharing in his disqualification. If she is not his wife, she can be returned home as an immoral character. The Dominion police, who have had much experience in extradition, express the belief that Crippen will be deported. Even under the fugitive offenders' act they state that there is nearly as much difficulty and delay as by extradition if proceedings are fought.

He Will Not Resist.

Quebec, Aug. 2.—Dr. Crippen appeared before Magistrate Angers in private chambers for formal arraignment and was remanded to jail for fifteen days.
The prisoner declared he would not fight extradition. The probability is that he will be deported under the undesirable clause of the immigration act, together with Miss Leneve.

MEANS BUSINESS

Former President Bonilla Backed by a Vigorous Army.

New Orleans, Aug. 2.—Manuel Bonilla, one time president of Honduras, is more than half way to Tegucigalpa at the head of 3,000 men. It is believed here, according to information received, that Bonilla will strike at Tegucigalpa before the end of the week. Included in his force of 3,000 men, most of them trained soldiers, are 100 Americans, who joined Bonilla from Bluefields and New Orleans. The majority of the 100 Yankees are trained gunners who will handle Bonilla's machine guns in the attack on the capital he hopes to take, thereby restoring to himself leadership of the Honduran republic.

Young Man Defrauds Bank.

Scottsburg, Ind., Aug. 2.—After securing $900 from the Scottsburg State bank by means of a fraudulent draft,
a stranger giving his name as Thomas L. Manning and his home Lafayette, left the city before the bank officials became suspicious enough to report
the matter to the authorities.

Fatal Duel in Illinois.

Benton, Ill., Aug. 2.—In the presence of Edith Newton, sixteen years old, her father, James Newton, and her suitor, Singleton Isom, fought a fatal pistol
duel, resulting in Newton's death.

M. Tyck, an aviator from Antwerp,
in a spectacular flight at Brussels,
reached an altitude of 5,500 feet.

A COMEDY CAMPAIGN

Tom Taggart's Versatile Funmakers in Side-Splitting Farce.

[Special Correspondence.]

Indianapolis, Aug. 2.—Stokes Jackson, state chairman of Democrats in Indiana, by grace of, and for the peculiar purposes of Thomas Taggart periodically is quoted by the Taggart press bureau in tones of optimism Sunday would not be the full day it ought to be, if it were not for the regular hash of Jackson political prophecy. Mr. Jackson's last offering contained the following:

"Whenever two or three Democrats
meet and talk they are ready to shout.
It is not enthusiasm that has been worked up. They feel that way all the time."

This statement, for unconscious humor, ranks with that of Congressman Barnhart, Democratic member from the Thirteenth district, who said in a recent speech, "Democrats are still Democrats."

The only difference is in the discrepancy between Jackson's "shouting"
Democrats, and Barnhart's "still" ones.

When Chairman Jackson mentions Democrats "shouting" every time they meet and talk, one is minded to consider what sort of shouting is going on,
and what the shouters say so vociferously each to each.

For instance, if by any chance, John Kern should meet Ben Shively, would Mr. Kern shout: "bribery, fraud, trick-ery, robbery," and the things he ejaculated through the press against the Shively crowd in December, 1909? Is that the shouting Mr. Jackson refers to?

And again, suppose John E. Lamb,
by mischance, should confront Thomas Taggart and Crawford Fairbanks on the Democratic road. Would Mr.
Lamb, as usual, take up his shouting of "bossism, down with tyranny, Tag-gartism," and all that? And would the Taggart crowd respond with four minutes and a half of hissing and hooting, as they did at the state convention of Democrats, during Mr. Lamb's famous speech? Is this the sort of shouting
Mr. Jackson has in mind?

Imagine W. J. Bryan meeting the Indiana group of bosses, or Roger Sullivan, or the combined special interests of Nebraska, or Guffey, of Pennsylvania, all Democrats. Would there be some shouting? According to the ver-acious Mr. Jackson, there would be.
What would Mr. Bryan say? Would he shout at Taggart and the rest, as he did in the recent Nebraska Democratic state convention, and call them "assassins?" Would the special interests turn on Mr. Bryan and curse him as they did openly in the Nebraska Democratic convention? Are these some of the Democratic shoutings Chairman
Jackson has in mind?

These are possibilities on which the informed voter in Indiana is well pleased to speculate.

And let it be suggested further, that Steve Fleming meet Sam Ralston on the political glory path. More shouting? Sure. Fleming has a lot of things to say to Sam Ralston since Ralston "permitted" Boone county to repudiate Steve Fleming's plank in the Democratic state platform. Mr. Fleming is some shouter, himself, when it comes to demanding explanations.
And no doubt Mr. Ralston is capable of explaining with such lung power as is necessary to make Steve hear.

Perhaps when Governor Marshall
meets John Peterson, of the Tenth district, he can shout loud enough to make Peterson hear that "tariff for revenue," and "immediate tariff revision" talk. But it is just as likely that American industries will be heard above the governor's shouting.

John B. Peterson's case, by the way, is one of the many peculiar developments of the Democratic campaign to catch votes. Peterson is the Democratic nominee for congress in the Tenth. He is general counsel for the great steel corporation which is building Gary and Lake county, industrially.
Peterson also is general counsel for some railroads and big corporations at Crown Point. He has come out flatly for the Indiana Republican platform
on the tariff, ignoring the Joe Bailey plank in the Democratic platform; ignoring the tariff for revenue cries of Governor Marshall; ignoring the anti-tariff commission chatter of Stokes Jackson and Senator Shively, and striking out for himself, like Boone, Wells, Johnson and other counties are doing on state issues.

Peterson was nominated with the idea of using the power of the steel corporation, his employer, to coerce workmen in Lake county. Into voting the Democratic ticket this year.
Two years ago the Democrats were markedly successful in this respect.
They are scheming this year to do better, and not only plan to use coercive measures, but to adopt the protective principle "locally," in a foolish effort to trap voters who believe in protection.

Of all the comical twists of a comedy campaign, the play for industrial votes is the funniest developed by Tom Taggart's versatile funmakers.
Vaudeville has nothing to compare with it for straddling and coarseness.

Sam Ralston said the other day that the counties were being permitted to follow their own bent on state issues, regardless of the state platform, the plan being to whip the nominees into line for the state platform after election. Presumably Mr. Peterson is to be permitted to talk protection in the Tenth, and is to be whipped into line for Democratic tariff destruction after he is elected. It is to be hoped the Democratic party whip never will leave its mark on Peterson.

of her program and has a fine perception of climaxes and values. The result is a pleased and satisfied audience.

Associated with Miss Shipp are three artists exceptionally well qualified to help her in giving a thoroughly satisfactory program. Loar, the "Wizard of the Mandolin," is a revelation to those who believe that instrument to occupy a secondary position in musical excellence. Mr. Loar studied harmony, theory, and orchestration in the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, and for two years was leader of the Oberlin Mandolin club. In addition to this he has had the experience of five full Lyceum seasons, and for two seasons played in most of the best vaudeville theaters of the West and South. He is recognized as one of the best mandolin virtuosos before the public playing with a finish and power not usual on this instrument. In addition to the mandolin he uses the mandola, an instrument of his own invention, combining the best features of the mandolin and viola. This instrument has five strings, instead of four, an original system of tuning is also used, and in volume, power and facility of expression the effect is that of a complete orchestra. The instrument is undoubtedly one that forces recognition, as being capable of correctly and beautifully interpreting the best in music.

Lovers of vocal art will be pleased that we are able to include in this company Mrs. Etta Goode Heacock, whose beautiful, rich contralto voice has been cultivated by years of conscientious study under the most competent instructors of America, numerous engagements as soloist of music festivals, Chautauqua and other occasions, together with an extended concert and Lyceum experience.

Miss Georgia Erwin, violinist and harpist, is a charming girl of the Southland, a graduate of the Conservatory at Louisburg, Virginia. She completed her musical studies on both harp and violin with some of the best teachers in Chicago. Her playing on each of these popular instruments is of the expressive, soulful type that appeals most to the general public. The high standing of the company will be maintained by her excellent musical taste and ability.

HIT AND INSTANTLY KILLED BY I. & C. CAR

Unidentified Man is Struck by West-bound Traction Car Near Acton.

NO MARKS OF IDENTIFICATION

An unidentified man was struck by a west-bound interurban car of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati traction company on the Shelbyville division near Acton, between Indianapolis and Shelbyville at 7:30 o'clock last night and killed. The man's body bore no papers of identification and little was learned by Deputy Coroner Swails. The man was seen near Acton by residents during the afternoon and shortly before the accident was seen walking north along the interurban track toward Indianapolis. He was on different I. & C. cars and each time got off, saying that it was not the right car.

Several persons who talked with the man, says the deputy coroner, are of the opinion that the man's mind was unbalanced. They said he talked at random and seemed unable to talk long on one subject. He did not say where he lived or give his name. The body was taken to the Indianapolis morgue to await identification. The man was thought to be about thirty years old, had dark hair and weighed about 170 pounds. His skull was fractured and no other bones in his body were broken. The car was in charge of Conductor Thaw and Motorman McClelland.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

HAD CUTTING FRAY.

(Greensburg News.)

A cutting affray occurred in St. Paul Saturday night that might have proved serious had the knife user been a little more dextrous in the wielding of his weapon.

For some time past Ed Holland and Benjamin Johnson have carried a grudge for each other and when they met Saturday evening in front of the Jewett store, Holland drew his knife and got busy. Before the men were separated he had cut five large gashes on Johnson's neck and head, and if they had been a little deeper, the injured man would have been killed.

The gashes were of such length that it took Dr. Williams more than an hour to sew up the wounds. Johnson was able to be about Monday morning and so far there has been no affidavit filed.
